Director of Training and Education

SUBJECT: Request to Address The Senior Seminar, Foreign Service Institute, Department of State

1. You are invited to welcome the members of The Senior Seminar on Thursday, 22 May 1986, from 0915-1000 hours, in Room 7D64 Headquarters. The participants will spend the entire day at Headquarters meeting with key Agency officials.

2. The Senior Seminar (known in recent years as the Executive Seminar in National and International Affairs) is the most advanced executive development program for career officials of the United States Government. The ten-month program has been conducted annually since 1958 by the Foreign Service Institute (FSI).

3. The Seminar is composed of 29 members (including three Agency officers), 14 of whom are from the Department of State. The others represent Government departments and agencies with foreign affairs responsibilities, and the five uniformed services.

4. A brochure giving biographic data on the members is attached.
